Collective Work

TECA collective are currently Artists in Residence at the School of Design & Creative Arts, GMIT. During this year-long residency, they have been granted a studio space to work on collaborative projects & conduct research, while also being available onsite for student engagement through teaching, attending critiques & classes, and facilitating workshops.

Prior to this, the collective had been awarded a project space as part of the Circuit Festival of Visual Arts, Galway (2021). TECA has exhibited at K-Fest Festival of Visual Arts in Killorglin, Co. Kerry (2021) and at the Culture Night Showcase of Galway City Collectives in the Dáil Bar Galway and The Front Door Galway (2021). In 2020, the collective curated Not a Degree Show, the BA Contemporary Art Graduate showcase in the Connacht Tribune Printworks in Galway City.
